SONOMA, JUNE 14, 1902.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

United States Department of Agriculture. Climate and Crop Bulletin of the Weather Bureau, California Section, Coast and Bay Division, for the week ending Monday, June 9, 1902.

Warm weather followed the rain of last week, greatly benefiting all crops. The damage to fruit and grain was less than anticipated last week. Grain is making good growth, and heavy crops are probable in the central and northern counties. Haying is progressing rapidly. In Sonoma county the hay crop is reported very heavy and clean, probably the best ever grown there. Hops, corn, beans and vegetables are making rapid growth. There will be a large acreage of potatoes in the vicinity of Peachland. Pears are badly damaged by blight in portions of Sonoma county. Early deciduous fruits are ripening rapidly, and good crops are expected in most sections. Cherry canning has commenced in some sections. Grape vines are in excellent condition and heavily laden. Citrus fruits are doing well.

A CANARD.

The Postoffice Not to be Removed—A Mischievous Lie Nailed.

The Mischievous Lie is always abroad in Sonoma and he is pretty well known to many of our citizens. His last attempt to breed trouble in the community has been nipped in the bud. Early in the week the Lie circulated the report that the Postoffice was to be removed from the McMackin building to the Adler corner, now in course of construction. The fact of the matter is no such removal will take place. Before Mr. Adler decided to build he had already secured his tenants and the United States Government is not one of them. G. H. Hotz will occupy the corner, R. G. Shoults the adjoining store and the other store will be occupied by parties who have not as yet closed a deal with him. Mr. Adler says the Postoffice is all right where it is.

Now for the animus of the report. Both Mr. McMackin and Mr. Adler are substantial and enterprising property-owners. Both are in favor of progress. Mr. Adler headed the list of signers to the petition which demanded of the City Trustees a renewal of the street lighting contract which was presented to that body last week. Mr. McMackin, the owner of the Postoffice building and other valuable property in the town, also signed the petition. It was then that the Mischievous Lie sought to breed trouble among two of our principal advocates for a street lighting service by causing to be circulated the canard that would make it appear that one of these two men was trying to get a tenant away from the other on a sneak. Mr. Adler's emphatic denial has killed this latest falsehood of the Mischievous Lie before it was fairly incubated.

The Annual Reunion of the Alumni.

The annual reunion of the Alumni of the Sonoma High School took the form of a banquet, which was held last Saturday evening at the Hotel Union.

The dining room had been tastefully decorated and the tables strewn with sweet peas and ivy geranium. About this festive board the Alumni and the Class of 1902 gathered. A delicious menu had been prepared and between the courses speeches, toasts and songs were indulged in. Miss Mabel Lowell '01 acted as toast master, and a toast to the class of 1902 was responded to by Miss Ruth MacQuiddy.

A jolly song, written for the occasion, was sung in chorus and Glen Murdoch, principal of the High School, made some very appropriate remarks. Miss Agnes Jewett's (Vice Principal) speech was a prophecy for the members of '02. Miss Zarifa Howe spoke of 1902 and old times at the High School.

The affair was by far the nicest in the history of the Alumni and much credit is due Mrs. Hartley Gottenberg for her earnest work in behalf of the association's reunion.

The following were present at the banquet: Messrs. Weems, Trudgen, Murdoch, McGimsey, Weaver, Misses Howe, Emparan, McGimsey, MacQuiddy, Lowell, Jewett, Culberson, Griffith, Church, G. McGimsey, Harper, Mesdames King and Gottenberg.

The Woman's Club.

The Woman's Club held its regular semi-monthly meeting in Odd Fellows Hall last Saturday afternoon. The members decided to have no day celebration on the Fourth, but will give a grand ball in the evening at Union Hall, on which neither money nor time will be spared.

They also decided to buy a Steinway piano which they will use at their various entertainments and rent out to any one desiring a good instrument.

(Members of the club report that the ball to be held in Union Hall on the evening of June 20th promises to be a big success.)

The family left here about four years ago and took up their residence in San Francisco. Mrs. Raschen has many old-time friends in this valley who will be pained to hear of her demise.

Garden Party at Caliente.

The ladies of St. Francis' Church have perfected arrangements for a grand garden party at Caliente Springs on Saturday evening, June 28th. A program of unusual excellence has been prepared and contains some novel features. W. W. Brackett and G. C. Lemar, two very clever members of the Golden City Minstrels of San Francisco, have been secured. They will render some choice humorous selections, sing comic songs and afford much amusement. At the conclusion of the program refreshments will be served, and as the hotel grounds are provided with an open-air dancing platform good music has been secured for those who wish to enjoy a social hop. Admission to the grounds will be 25 cents for adults; children under twelve years, 10 cents. Those who attend the garden party will be assured a pleasant evening and an enjoyable time.

YOUNG LADY MEETS WITH AN ACCIDENT.

Result of City Turning off the Street Lights.

One night this week while Miss Irene Knolton, a San Francisco visitor here, was coming from the dancing school with a party of friends she had a narrow escape from serious injury. The night was a dark one, and the streets were in gloom owing to the city shutting down its electric light service, and Miss Knolton, not looking for any impediment in her path, led the way home. Suddenly she plunged forward and fell headlong into the deep and dirty ditch on First street West near the corner of Napa street. The young lady's companions came to her rescue and pulling her out of the ditch assisted her home. Miss Knolton was badly bruised up, suffered nausea from her slimy submersion and ruined a handsome dress. This is a result of "economy."

This accident was preceded by another on Wednesday evening of last week which happened to Miss Elise Andrieux. The young lady while on her way from an entertainment in Union Hall to her mother's home, on the evening in question, owing to the darkness, fell into a ditch near St. Francis' Church and was seriously hurt. This accident, like the one narrated above, was caused by the shutting down of the street lights by the penny wise pound foolish policy of Trustees who are practicing "economy."

Mrs. Fred. Schell gave birth to a young son last Wednesday at the home of her sister Mrs. Fred. D. Spaulding.

As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this remedy in your home. For sale by F. Duhring.

THE ENGLISH PRIMROSE.

No Other Flower Holds an Equal Place in Britons' Affections.

No flower holds the same place in the affections of the people of the British isles as does the common primrose, Primula vulgaris. It is so closely associated with the country life that it would be hard to find a person who does not know what it is. One of the first flowers to open in spring, it is largely used to decorate the churches at Easter. Rather different from the English sparrow and some other "institutions," it does not make itself entirely at home in America, but as a garden plant it is well worthy of a little attention.

The greatest drawbacks to its welfare in this climate are the hot summers and severe winters, the former being the worst. But if planted where it can get a little shade and moisture in summer and a slight protection of leaves or other material in winter it will well repay for the extra care. It is hardly necessary to speak of the color, as it has given its name to that shade of pale yellow; but there are many garden hybrids of different colors, ranging through all the shades of blue and purple, that are very pretty and sweetly scented. The cowslip, Primula veris and Primula officinalis, names it is variously known under, is very much like the primrose in habit and general appearance, but the individual flowers are deeper yellow and smaller, with several borne on one stem, forming an umbel, while the blue primrose has only one flower on a stem.—Meehan's Monthly.

Some Women.

It is a common sight in London to see scores of women, many of them with babies in their arms, standing at public bars drinking gin. If the women were taken from behind the bars, the women would not stand in front of them. This is the proposition which the British reformer does not seem to have acted upon.

In France one wonders where the men are, as the women appear to be doing all the work. It is much the same in Germany. In the city of Munich I recently saw women mending the streets, adjusting the rails of the tramway and handling the heaviest tools of the trade. I saw no men at this work. Those who were not walking about in military uniforms were mainly driving cabs.

The reflection upon this sort of differences in national points of view tends to a certain inward satisfaction in the American breast, and perhaps the natural gratification which one feels upon regaining native shores is mingled with a touch of that pride which needs to be regulated, but not necessarily suppressed.—William Howard Francis in Lippincott's.

A Perfect Lady.

The following conversation took place between a well known actress and "a dresser" in a large provincial theater in England:

"Perhaps you don't remember me, miss?" said the dresser in the half vague, half confidential manner of her kind.

"I remember you very well," replied the actress, "but I think it was your sister who dressed me when I was here before."

"Oh, no, miss! I've got a sister, but she's never been here with me. Oh, you'd have liked my sister, miss!" Then in a tone of conviction, "Oh, she's a perfect lady—looks so nice—always wears a black silk dress, and I've never seen her the worse for drink in all my life!"

A Husband Incidentally.

The death of a member was reported recently at one of the women's clubs. "I move that a letter of sympathy be sent," said one member. "To whom?" inquired the president. Inquiry was made as to what family the deceased member had left. "She had a daughter," explained a well known suffragist. "The letter should be sent to her daughter." "But wasn't there a husband?" inquired another member. "Oh, yes, there was a husband, too," admitted the suffragist, with the air of "husbands don't count." The club decided, however, to count the husband in and send the letter to "the family."—New York Press.

The Mighty Amazon.

The Amazon is in every respect but length the greatest river in the world. At many points in its lower course so vast is its tide that one shore is invisible from the other, the observer seeming to look out into a rolling sea of turbid water. It has over 400 tributaries, great and small, which rise in so many different climates that when one set is at flood height the other is at ebb, and vice versa, so that the bulk of the great river remains unchanged the whole year round. At 1,000 miles from its mouth it is navigable for large steamships and at 2,000 for steamboats of the largest size.

George Schaub, a well-known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by F. Duhring.

Milk Frauds in Athens.

An ingenious method of milk adulteration is practiced in Athens. The residents have a penchant for goats' milk, and herds of these animals are led along the street by milk sellers wearing long blouses with capacious sleeves. Their cry of "Gala, gala!" brings the housewife to the door, and she prudently demands that the goats shall be milked in her presence. This is done, but the milkman has in one hand the end of a thin tube which runs up his sleeve and connects with an india rubber receptacle full of water, which is carried under his ample blouse. At each pressure of the fingers on the udder there is a corresponding compression of the water sack, and milk and water flow side by side into the milkpail.—Journal des Debats.

"Three" in Mythology.

In mythology we find the three (3) occupying even a more honorable place than the so called "mythical number 7." There were the three graces, Cerberus with his three heads, Neptune holding his three tined fork, to say nothing of the nine muses, which are made up of three threes, and the third wave, which was thought to bring death and destruction to everything in its path. In nature we have morning, noon and night; fish, fowl and fowl. Hundreds of trees, vines and grasses have their leaves and blades set in groups of three.

When the Cat Was Sacred.

In the middle ages brute animals formed as prominent a part in the devotional ceremonies of the time as they had in the religion of Egypt. The cat (felurus) was embalmed after death and buried in the city of Bubastis, because, according to Herodotus, Diana Bubastis, the chief deity of the place, was said to have transformed herself into a cat when the gods fled to Egypt.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.
